Who we are

We do everything in the best possible way. We have eight years of experience in ecommerce and know how to deal with it the best. We put forward demands for writing code and work according to our processes for a high-quality code review delivery.

Also, we spend a lot of time learning the latest technologies to stay at the top. Quality matters, and we prove it by the work we do.

Our events

Magento platform has a community of nearly 150,000 developers that stretch the globe. Within this ecosystem, Magento developers inform, educate, and support each other.

We were the first company in Kharkiv, one of Ukraine's IT-centers, to have launched quarterly Magento Meetup & Contribution Days back in 2017 to evolve the Magento community.

Our corporate culture

It's significant for us to build trusting and respectful relationships in the team.

We regularly hold events and celebrate holidays together to create a friendly climate and team spirit. We organize summer picnics, New Year parties, kayak trips, bicycle rides, regular team buildings, and celebrate the birthdays of our colleagues monthly as well. Trust us, we are big on real fun and entertainment.
